Pursuant to Article 14 of Ichigo's Articles of Incorporation, Ichigo has made this policy available on its corporate website:

www.ichigo.gr.jp/ir/management_policies/internal_controls.html/en

1. Internal Controls to Ensure that Statutory Executive Officers and Employees Execute Their Duties in Full Compliance with Japanese Law and Ichigo's Articles of Incorporation (Article 416, Paragraph 1, Item 1 of the Company Law, Article 112, Paragraph 2, Item 4 of the Enforcement Regulation of the Company Law)

Overview

(1) The Board complies with relevant laws and regulations, the Articles of Incorporation, resolutions adopted at shareholders' meetings, Ichigo's mission, Ichigo's Code of Corporate Ethics, and Ichigo's Code of Conduct in making its decisions and delegating daily management to the Statutory Executive Officers, that in turn supervise employees within their respective delegated areas of management. The Board supervises the Statutory Executive Officers by receiving periodic reports on the status of business execution. The Audit Committee audits the performance of duties for both Statutory Executive Officers and employees.

(2) The Board sets internal rules, establishes relevant divisions and appoints Statutory Executive Officers, and engages external experts with respect to establishing compliance, financial reporting controls, internal audit, prevention of dealings with anti-social forces, and prevention of insider trading.

Status

(1) The Board is comprised of six independent and three internal directors, and had a total of 10 meetings during FY19/2 with a 98.9% attendance rate. Statutory Executive Officers make decisions and/or seek board approval through board proposals, and report their activities to the Board at least quarterly. The Audit Committee is comprised of three Independent Directors, and held a total of 18 meetings during FY19/2 with a 100% attendance rate.

(2) (a) Compliance – The Compliance Committee held two meetings to deliberate material compliance matters and conducted training sessions based on the company's Code of Corporate Ethics and Code of Conduct. Specifically, the Internal Audit Department examined the execution of management duties, the appropriateness of M&As, and the status of investment securities.

(d) Prevention of Dealings with Anti-Social Forces – Ichigo has written manuals on how to handle Anti-Social Forces as well as rules that require Anti-Social Force clauses to be included in contracts. Furthermore, Ichigo works with the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and other external experts in conducting due diligence of business counterparties. (See “System Against Anti-Social Forces.”)

6. Other Material Matters Related to the Preparation of the Financial Statements

a. Consumption Tax

For most items, consumption taxes are excluded from the relevant revenue, costs, or expenses.

Non-deductible consumption taxes are generally accounted for as costs in the current fiscal year; however, certain items paid in connection with the acquisition of assets are amortized over 5 years using the straight-line method or are included in acquisition costs.

b. Operational Investments

Operational investments are separated from non-operational investments and are accounted for under Operational Securities Investments and Operational Loan Investments within Current Assets. Profits and losses arising from operational investments are accounted for under Operating Profits and Losses.

Although Ichigo may control the decision-making body of investment vehicles or hold significant influence over them by holding shares, shares are held solely for operational investment purposes and Ichigo has no intention of holding them as subsidiaries or affiliates. Therefore, such investment vehicles are excluded from subsidiaries or affiliates.

c. Investment Partnerships

Ichigo accounts for investments in investment partnerships as Operational Securities Investments. Such investments are recorded at the time the investments are made. Gains and losses distributed from the investment partnerships are recorded as Revenue, and Operational Securities Investments increases or decreases by the same amount. Refunds received from the investment partnerships are credited to Operational Securities Investments.

d. Consolidated Tax Treatment

Ichigo qualifies for consolidated tax treatment.

E. Change in Accounting Treatment

Change in Accounting Treatment of Non-Recourse Loan Expenses from Cost of Goods Sold to Non-Operating Expenses

Through FY18/2, non-recourse loan interest expenses (and related costs) were treated as Cost of Goods Sold (totaling JPY 1,060 million in FY18/2). From FY19/2, they are treated as Non-Operating Expenses (totaling JPY 895 million in FY19/2).

Treating these non-recourse loan interest expenses as the equivalent of corporate loan interest expenses will unify and simplify their accounting treatment.

V. Notes on Financial Instruments

A. Matters Concerning Status of Financial Instruments

1. Policies on Financial Instruments

Ichigo finances its necessary operating capital primarily via bank loans and bonds in light of new investment and asset disposition plans. Short-term excess funds are managed in liquid financial instruments such as bank deposits, and short-term working capital is financed via bank loans. Ichigo's policy is to use derivatives only for hedging purposes and not for speculative transactions.

2. Details and Risks of Financial Instruments

Trade notes, accounts receivable, and operational loan investments are operating receivables that are exposed to customer credit risks. Foreign currency-denominated financial instruments in overseas business operations are exposed to currency risks.

Operational securities investments are primarily investments in Japanese and foreign equities, and securities investments primarily take the form of equity and are typically investments in companies with which Ichigo has a business relationship. All of these investments are exposed to issuer credit risk, interest rate risk, and market price fluctuation risk.

Bank loans, bonds, and non-recourse loans are for the purpose of financing investments and capital expenditures, and are expected to be redeemed or repaid within approximately thirty years after the fiscal year-end. Floating-rate loans are exposed to interest rate risk, a part of which is hedged using derivative transactions (e.g. interest rate swaps and interest rate caps). Please refer to (I) Material Matters for Preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements (D) Accounting Standards, (4) Material Hedge Accounting Method.

3. Risk Management of Financial Instruments

(a) Management of Credit Risk

Operating receivables exist primarily at subsidiaries. Responsible departments monitor the collection status pursuant to the designated procedure for mitigation of collection risk. Other operating receivables arise irregularly, e.g. at the time of investment monetization, and the responsible department determines the execution of the transaction based on the time needed for collection and the credit worthiness of the counterparty and monitors the receivable until it is collected in accordance with the agreement. Ichigo monitors operational securities investments and securities investments with respect to the financial status of the issuers and reviews holding policies, as necessary and appropriate.

(b) Management of Market Risk

Ichigo uses interest rate swaps and interest rate caps for the purpose of reducing interest rate risk on corporate and non-recourse loans. Ichigo monitors operational securities investments and securities investments which have market risks (e.g. real estate funds) or are denominated in foreign currencies regularly for the impact from changes in market value and currency rates and reviews the holding policies as necessary. Derivative transactions are executed and controlled in the Finance Department in accordance with the designated procedure.

(c) Management of Liquidity Risk

Ichigo establishes and updates its funding plan as necessary based on new investment and disposition plans set by the responsible departments, and manages liquidity risk by maintaining short-term liquidity.

4. Supplement to Matters Concerning Market Values of Financial Instruments

Market values of financial instruments include prices based on market prices as well as prices calculated based on rational assumptions where market prices are not available. Such prices may fluctuate, since their calculations include variables that can vary based on assumptions.

B. Adjustments to Market Values of Financial Instruments

Amounts recorded on the consolidated balance sheet, corresponding market values, and their differences as of February 28, 2019 are shown below. Items for which it is deemed highly difficult to obtain market values are not included. (See Note 2 on page 29).

² The receivables and payables related to derivative transactions are shown as a net amount.

(Note 1) Calculation Method of Market Value of Financial Instruments and Matters Concerning Securities and Derivatives Transactions

Assets

(1) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Carried at book value due to short settlement period.

(2) Trade Notes and Accounts Receivable

Carried at book value less allowance for doubtful accounts due to short settlement period and because allowance for doubtful accounts appropriately takes into consideration credit risks.

(3) Operational Loan Investments

Carried at book value less allowance for doubtful accounts due to short settlement period and because allowance for doubtful accounts appropriately takes into consideration credit risks.

(4) Securities Investments

The market values of equities are the last traded exchange price, and bonds are the last-traded exchange price or dealer-indicated price.

(5) Long-Term Loans

The market values of long-term loans are calculated based on the present value of the total amount of the principal and interest using a discount rate for similar new loans. Certain debts such as loans with default risk are at book value less the estimated doubtful accounts.

Liabilities

(1) Short-Term Loans, (2) Bonds due within One Year, (3) Long-Term Loans due within One Year, (4) Long-Term Non-Recourse Loans due within One Year, and (5) Income Tax Payable Carried at book value due to short settlement period.

(6) Bonds

The fair value of bonds issued by Ichigo is calculated based on the current value by applying a discount rate to the total of principal and interest.

(7) Long-Term Loans, and (8) Long-Term Non-Recourse Loans

Floating-rate borrowings for long-term loans, and long-term non-recourse loans are carried at book value because their book values closely track their market values. Partial floating-rate long-term loans and long-term non-recourse loans are subject to the special accounting treatment of interest rate swaps, and their market values are calculated by taking the present value of their principal and interest along with the corresponding interest rate swap, using a discount rate for similar new loans.

The market values of fixed-rate loans are calculated based on the present value of the total amount of principal and interest using a discount rate for similar new loans.

Derivative Transactions

The market values of derivative transactions are the prices presented by financial institutions. The market value of interest rate swaps under special treatment is included in long-term loans and long-term non-recourse loans since it is accounted for with the instrument it hedges.
